*Subject

Petition from B. Jeevan clerk, Dewan's Office, dated July 1902, praying for the grant of 6 mths pay in advance for building a house in Mallesvaram

Note

The applicant was ~~gran~~ granted ~~sanction~~ an advance of Rs 480/ in Govt Pros. No 4924-6 R.T 17-98 dated 11th Janry 1900. He drew only Rs 240/ which he says has been cleared.

He now requests that under Codal rules he may be given an advance of Rs 240/ which will be his 6 ~~mths~~ months pay.

Though Counted as an application second advance, it is virtually renewing

the sanction once conveyed for the grant of an advance of Rs 480. In this view the advance
may be sanctioned & the Secretary

24/9/02

If the old advance is paid up, this may be ~~renewed~~ granted. But call for a report from the Dy Co as usual.

The Engineer reports that about one hundred pipes have to be laid & the ground found stiff. The work has been in progress for about 2 or 3 months & will be required to complete the remaining. Under these circumstances may the second half of the advance be sanctioned?

Dr Lobo for orders 24/9/02.

The petr has put in another petn. A further advance of 6 months Pay may be granted.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No F2 547 / R. 7150-95 dated the 26th September 1902, calling for a report regarding the advance made to the Diwan's office Clerk B. Jeevandas, for building a house in the Malleswaram extension, I have the honor to report that about one hundred rupees seem to

to have been spent on foundation work, no other work having been even attempted on the site. About two or three thousand rupees are (in the opinion of the Amildar) required to complete a decent dwelling. The amount of first advance has been fully repaid. Jeevan Rao's petition is, herewith, returned.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
